CLEMSON, S.C. – Clemson men's soccer scored three first half goals, en route to a 5-0 victory over the Eagles on Tuesday. The Tigers improve to 6-0-0 on the season, while the Eagles fall to 3-3-0.

The Tigers would open the scoring early in the fifth minute, as Callum Johnson finished a cross Mohamed Seye. In the 14th minute, Quinn McNeill doubled the Clemson lead with a strong finish from just outside the area. To cap off the first half scoring, Josh Hallenberger, beat the Eagles defense and sneaked one past Jokull Blaengsson to make it 3-0.

In the second half, Clemson would add a fourth goal in the 55th minute, as Isaiah Reid collected a pass from Enrique Montana to increase the lead. Tim Strobeck concluded the night with an 89th minute goal. Jokull Blaengsson falls to 2-3-0 on the season, making five saves on the night.

The Eagles will be back in action on Saturday evening in Buies Creek, North Carolina. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. from Campbell.

QUOTING COACH MURPHY

"We came out slow which is not like us. A good team like Clemson will sense that and take it to you. I thought we had serviceable efforts from chase, Jack and Tom off the bench which is a positive sign. We will spend the available time to prepare for a trip to Campbell this weekend."

NEXT UP
